PREFACE

When my granduncle, Dewitt Clinton Haskin, published a short history of Enoch Haskin and his descendants in 1890 he ended his preface with the hope that someone with more time at command would improve and enlarge it. I end this revision with the same hope; perhaps someone will wish to improve and enlarge my work in the middle of the next century.

I have found that even the best genealogists do not always draw the same conclusions from the same records so I have not used much of my limited time to check original records; it seemed more profitable to assemble all the information I could obtain from as many sources as were available. I hope that anyone who finds errors in my work will send me corrections.

I am very grateful to all who have so generously helped with this history and especially

To the genealogists whose published works have provided so much information about the early generations:

To Catherine Waterfield Haskin, who has written hundreds of letters of inquiry about the later generations:

To the hundreds of people, not all relatives, who have answered her letters:

To James A. Hatcher, whose printing press has made a wider circulation of the history possible.

FIRST GENERATION

1. JOHN HASKINS: Born about 1655 and married Elizabeth, the widow of Aaron Knapp, about 1676, probably at Taunton, Bristol County, Massachusetts, where John was working as a weaver in 1688. They had two daughters, Sarah and Elizabeth. On August 21, 1689 he pledged six shillings for the Eastern Expedition against the Indians; his gun was impressed for the use of Richard Briggs. In 1690 he was a soldier in Captain Samuel Gallop's company in the expedition against Quebec. He was constable of Taunton in 1690 and 1691. He witnessed the will of Shadrack Wilbore on September 12, 1696 and took inventory of the Wilbore estate on February 23, 1697/8 at Taunton. On July 25, 1697 he was appointed Taunton press master. In 1700 he was a member of the Taunton First Military Company. Because William Hoskins of Plymouth and several of his sons were members of the same company some genealogists believe that John was also a son of this William; I have seen no evidence to support this view. Mrs. Haskins died about 1715, probably at Dighton, Massachusetts, which was established from the South Purchase of Taunton on May 30, 1712. Taunton was established on March 3, 1639 from common land called Cohannett. In the Summer of 1716 John married Amee ----. He died about August, 1716 at Dighton; his will, dated May 31, 1715, named his brother Richard executor.

2. RICHARD HASKINS: Born about 1660 and was married to Jane Foster (Fluster?) on August 2, 1686 at Taunton by Major Thomas Leonard. The marriage record states that he was "of Portsmouth". Although no previous record of him has been found it is possible that he and John were the sons of William Hoskins of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, who came from Ireland and was admitted freeman on July 9, 1672. Jane was born about 1665 and died childless at Taunton about 1688. About 1690 he married Mary Tisdale at Taunton. They had nine children, John, Mercy, Mary, Daniel, Sarah, Elizabeth, Martha, Rebecca, and Hannah. Mary Tisdale was born about 1667, probably at Taunton; she was the daughter of James Tisdale and Mary Avery, and the granddaughter of John Tisdale, who came to Plymouth Colony before June, 1636 and was killed by Indians on June 27, 1675 during an attack on Taunton. Richard bought land from the Waldron family in May, 1692, from Mary Street in 1694, and from Joseph Tisdale in 1695. In 1700 he was a member of the Taunton First Military Company. In 1705 Benedict Arnold of Newport, Rhode Island sold him land in the area which later became Dighton. Richard was a weaver, educated and literate, as he wrote well and owned a library valued at four pounds. When Dighton was incorporated he was appointed rate maker. In 1714 he was highway surveyor and town clerk. On March 1, 1716/7 he sold his Dighton property to Daniel King of Scituate for nine hundred pounds. On April 9, 1717 he bought from Thomas and Deborah Stodder of Norwich 199 acres at Norwich West Farms, which was the early name of Franklin, Connecticut, about eight miles northwest of the present city of Norwich. The main building, which had been built in 1685, was still in good repair and occupied as late as 1931. He died there on December 26, 1717, leaving an estate of 1331 pounds, 16 shillings, 7 pence. His burial place has not been found. Mrs. Haskins died there in 1718.

3. SARAH HASKINS: Born about 1677 at Taunton, Massachusetts, where she married Henri Gachet on September 2, 1697. They had two sons, Daniel and Isaac, and seven unidentified daughters, who are believed to have married into the Crossman, Jones, Perry, Pitts, Smith and Tisdale families. Henri came from Rochelle, France with his brother David and settled in Bristol County, Massachusetts.

4. ELIZABETH HASKINS: Born about 1680 at Taunton, married Ebenezer Pitts about 1698, and died after 1765. They lived in the area which became Dighton, Massachusetts; he was one of the first three selectmen of Dighton.

5. JOHN HASKIN: Born about 1691 at Taunton, Massachusetts and married Anna -----. They had three children, Sible, Anna, and William. In 1732 John bought land at Bolton, Connecticut, where Mrs. Haskin died on November 15, 1735 and where he married Sarah Roberts of Hartford, Connecticut on December 23, 1736. He died there on September 16, 1766.

6. MERCY HASKIN: Born about 1693 at Taunton and married Jared Talbot III on April 19, 1714 at Dighton, Massachusetts. They had four children, Abigail, Joseph, Meriam, and Elizabeth. Jared was the son of Jared Talbot Jr. and Rebeckah Hathaway and was the grandson of Jared Talbot, who owned much property in the Broad Cove area of Taunton and died in 1686.

7. MARY HASKIN: Born about 1695 at Taunton and became the second wife of Moses Cass on January 23, 1717/8 at Lebanon, Connecticut. They had nine children, Mary, Patience, Moses Jr., Lois, Alice, Hannah, Josiah, Eliphalet, and Mary 2. Mr. Cass was born in 1695 at Lebanon and died on September 6, 1741; he was the son of Ebenezer Cass and Patience Draper of Hampton, New Hampshire and was the grandson of John Cass, who came from St. Albans, England in 1644 and settled in New Hampshire.

8. DANIEL HASKIN: Born in 1697 at Taunton and married Mehitable Badger in September, 1718 at Norwich, Connecticut. They had twelve children, Anna, Richard, Mary, Mehitable, Dorcas, Dorcas 2, Elkanah, Irene, Martha; Barnabas, Enoch; and Daniel Jr. Mrs. Haskin was born in August, 1700 at Newbury, Massachusetts; her ancestor, Giles Badger, had come there from Westbury on Severn, Gloucestershire, England about 1635 and was one of the original proprietors. Her parents were Nathaniel Badger and Mary Lunt. Mr. Haskin died on April 20, 1755 at Franklin, Connecticut, leaving an estate of 346 pounds, 14 shillings, 7 pence, besides a house, shop, barn, horse shed; and forty seven acres of land. Mrs. Haskin died there on March 20, 1781; both are buried in the Old Plains Burying Ground.

9. SARAH HASKIN: Born about 1699 at Taunton and married John Hyde Jr. on September 21, 1721 at Norwich, where she died on September 6, 1753. They had eleven children, Anne, Experience, Silas, John III, Mary, Simeon, Levi, Mary 2, Asa, Rufus, and Hannah. Mr. Hyde was born on December 5, 1698 and died at Norwich on October 22, 1762. He was a son of John Hyde and Experience Able and was a descendant of William Hyde, who came from England to Newton, Massachusetts in 1633 and later became one of the original proprietors of Norwich.

10. ELIZABETH HASKIN: Born about 1701 at Taunton and married Joseph Edgerton Jr. on December 10, 1722 at Norwich, where she died on April 10, 1776. They had eight children, Hannah, Benjamin, Elizabeth, Simeon, Lucy, Joseph III, Martha, and William. Mr. Edgerton was a son of Joseph Edgerton and Elizabeth Scudder; he was born on January 17, 1696/7 at Norwich and was lost at sea shortly before the Revolution.

11. MARTHA HASKIN: Born about 1703 and married Thomas Waterman III about 1721. They had four children, Lucy, Ruth, Silas, and Martha. Thomas was born at Norwich on April 25, 1692; he was a descendant of Robert Waterman, who came from England to Marshfield, Massachusetts before 1638.

12. REBECCA HASKIN: Born about 1708 at Taunton, married Edward Marcy on January 22, 1729/30 at Franklin, and died on December 14, 1748 at Ashford, Connecticut. They had nine children, Edward Jr., Reuben, Simeon, Rebecca, Jerusha, Simeon 2, Sarah, and two sons who died at birth. Mr. Marcy was born on June 28, 1695 at Woodstock, Connecticut. He was commissioned lieutenant of the 12th Company, Fifth Regiment of Connecticut Militia in October, 1748 and captain of the same in October, 1750. He died on January 8, 1774 at Ashford.

13. HANNAH HASKIN: Born about 1710 at Taunton and married Ebenezer Thomas on March 7, 1732 at Norwich, where she died on July 2, 1747. They had eight children, Hannah, Ebenezer, Mary, Lucretia, Lucretia 2, Abigail, Ebenezer 2, and Elizabeth. Mr. Thomas was born on November 1, 1703 and was admitted freeman of Norwich in 1727; he also owned land at Duxbury, Massachusetts. He had four more children by a second marriage and died on October 16, 1774. He was a son of James Thomas and Mary Tilden and was a grandson of John Thomas, who came from England to Marshfield in 1635 on the ship Hopewell.

38. ELKANAH HASKIN: Born on July 31, 1732 at Norwich and married Lois Kilborn on September 18, 1754 at Litchfield, Connecticut

They had four children, Abraham, Lydia, Daniel, and Dorcas. Lois was a daughter of Abraham and Rebecca Kilborn.

39. IRENE HASKIN: Born on July 1, 1734 at Norwich.

40. MARTHA HASKIN: Born on July 14, 1736 at Norwich, where she died on May 14, 1738.

41. BARNABAS HASKIN: Born on June 1, 1738 at Norwich, where he died in April, 1741.

42. ENOCH HASKIN: Born on May 22, 1740 at Norwich and married Rachel Bacon of Colchester, Connecticut on April 23, 1760. She died on January 23, 1762 after the birth of her daughter Rachel and was buried beside Enoch's parents in the Old Plains Burying Ground. In 1764 he married Mary Williams, the widow of Samuel Pelton; they had five children, Enoch Jr., Abel, Azariah, Riah, and Rhoda. About 1770 they moved to Lenox, Massachusetts and later to Pittsfield, Massachusetts. During the Revolution he served with Massachusetts troops under Captain William Francis and Captain John Strong and with the Pittsfield reinforcement to the Continental Army. The History of Pittsfield states that he served on a committee attending on "matters which have been the cause of the late disunion in the town". In 1790 the family moved to Pittstown, New York, where he died of old age in March, 1833; Mary had died in 1820. He was a devout Presbyterian in faith, a shoemaker by trade, and of oldfashioned sterling integrity. The unusual occurrence of five generations dining together occurred at Troy, New York with him seated at the head of the table - Enoch, his son Enoch Jr., his granddaughter Betsy Haskin Thurber, his great-grandson Edward Thurber, and his great-great-grandson Richard Thurber - the oldest ninety two and the youngest two years of age.

43. DANIEL HASKIN JR.: Born on March 31, 1744 at Norwich. In 1760 and 1761 he served in the Connecticut Regiment in the French and Indian War. On September 11, 1764 he married Abigail Roberts; they had nine children, Asael, Roxalene, Betsy, Truman, Orissa, Heber, Clarissa, and two unidentified daughters, one of whom married William Stacey and the other an Applegate. The family moved to Lenox and later to Bridport, Addison County, Vermont, where Daniel was listed in the census for 1790 and again for 1800. During the Revolution he served seven enlistments with Vermont troops. He was a close friend of Ethan Allen and family tradition has it that he was Ethan's lieutenant at the capture of Fort Ticonderoga. About 1814 he settled near Detroit, Michigan; some of his sons sailed schooners on Lake Erie. In 1826 he visited his brother Enoch at Pittstown on his way to Vermont; he was then eighty three years of age but quite active. An account of his trip was published in the "Northern Budget" of Troy, New York, referring to it as quite remarkable for one of his years, considering the mode of travel at that time. He died in 1844 at Mount Clemens, Michigan. Abigail was born on February 2, 1746 at Norwich; she was a daughter of Samuel Roberts and Jerviah Hartshorn.

67. EDWARD MARCY JR.: Born on March 3, 1730/1 at Ashford, Connecticut. It was probably this Edward, rather than his father, who served in the French and Indian War as sergeant in 1755 and as lieutenant in 1756. He later moved to the South.

68. REUBEN MARCY: Born on November 23, 1732 at Ashford, where he married Rachel Watson on November 18, 1756 and died on January 14, 1806. They had ten children, Matthew, Jerusha, Rachel, Rebecca, Reuben Jr., Edward, Simeon, Bethia, Sarah, and Lydia. Mr. Marcy served in the Revolution as a lieutenant in Captain Knowlton's company at Lexington in April, 1775; in 1776 he was captain of the Fourth Company, Sixth Battalion of Colonel John Chester's regiment of Wadsworth's brigade, which participated in the evacuation of New York and the Battle of White Plains. Mrs. Marcy was born on July 14, 1736 at Barrington, Rhode Island and died on May 3, 1826 at Ashford; she was a daughter of Matthew Watson and Bethiah Reed.

69. SIMEON MARCY: Born on April 7, 1735 at Ashford, where he died on July 18, 1742.

70. REBECCA MARCY: Born on May 24, 1737 at Ashford and married a Ward.

71. JERUSHA MARCY: Born on September 21, 1739 at Ashford, where she died in 1742.

72. SIMEON 2 MARCY: Born on February 5, 1742/3 at Ashford, where he died on March 1, 1742/3.

73. SARAH MARCY: Born on June 11, 1744 at Ashford and married Jedediah Sage of Middletown, Connecticut on January 13, 1763 at Hartford, Connecticut. The only child I have been able to identify was Jerusha. Jedediah was born in 1739 and was a son of Captain David Sage and Bathsheba Judd.

of Windham, Connecticut. In 1781 he was a captain in Colonel Thomas Lee's regiment. They settled in the area which became the Town of Middletown, Vermont in 1784 and Jacob was elected selectman at the first town meeting, on March 7, 1785.

144. EUNICE HASKIN: Born on February 5, 1752 at Norwich.

145. BENJAMIN HASKIN: Born on August 26, 1754 at Norwich, where he married Delia Filmore Prior on June 19, 1780. During the Revolution he served in Captain Ebenezer Allen's company of Colonel Samuel Herrick's Vermont Rangers at the Battle of Bennington; in 1780 he served in Captain John Spafford's company; in 1781 he served under his brother-in-law, Captain Jacob Wood, in Colonel Lee's regiment. At the time of his marriage he was living in the Town of Tinmouth, Vermont; when his farm became part of the new Town of Middletown he was elected a road surveyor at the first town meeting. He died there in 1824. He was a member of the Congregational Church and because of his sobriety was known as Deacon Ben, although he never held that office. It is told that while driving cattle toward his home he was once attacked by a pack of fourteen wolves but drove them off with only a club.

146. LYDIA HASKIN: Born on March 25, 1757 at Norwich. On March 28, 1776 she and Jonathan Haynes Jr. were married by her brother-in-law, the Reverend Ithamar Hibbard, probably in the area which became the Town of Middletown, where she died on October 14, 1841. They had eleven children, Aaron, Miriam, Hezekiah, Molly, Zerna, Achsah, Laura, Lydia, Moses, Mendia, and Dornida. 169. ENOCH HASKIN JR.: Born on July 23, 1765 at Norwich. At the age of fourteen years he took the place of his father, whom illness had compelled to return home from the army, and served until the end of the Revolution. During the campaign which resulted in the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown he was in the transportation service because of his youth. He later told that he was so stunned, although not wounded, by a cannon ball which killed his ox team that he was thrown into a ditch for burial as dead but fortunately recovered in time. He received a pension of eight dollars a month for his army service. In 1787 he married Lydia Ackley at Pittsfield, Massachusetts. They lived for a while at Bridport, Vermont but about 1792 moved to Pittstown, New York, where he farmed and kept a tavern about half way between Bennington, Vermont and Troy, New York. They had six children, Enoch III, Betsey, Electa, Charles, Patty, and Lydia Ann. In 1837 they moved with their son Charles to Dayton, Ohio, where Mr. Haskin died of apoplexy in 1838 and was given a military funeral. His death was the final result of a severe injury received when he was thrown from a wagon in 1826, suffering a concussion and partial paralysis. He was a man of uncommon energy in all his business operations. Mrs. Haskin survived him by only one year.

170. ABEL HASKIN: Born on April 14, 1767 at Norwich, married Clarinda Phelps on July 20, 1786, and died of fever on July 12, 1792 at Pittstown. They had three sons, William Phelps, Abel Jr., and Joseph A.

171. AZARIAH HASKIN: Born on August 14, 1769 at Norwich and married Harriet Merriman in 1791. She died in 1796, leaving two daughters, Harriet and Amelia. In 1798 he married Eliza Potter and had five more daughters, Polly, Clarissa, Eliza M., Amelia 2, and Julia. His active life was passed in a general store at Pittstown, where he was noted for his upright, fair dealings with all. In 1840 he moved to the vicinity of Mexico, Oswego County, New York, where he died of old age on February 28, 1847. Mrs. Haskin was born about March 30, 1775 and died at Mexico on January 5, 1866; both are buried in Mexico Village Cemetery.

172. RIAH HASKIN: Born on June 27, 1771 at Lenox, Massachusetts and died in 1779.

173. RHODA (DOLLY) HASKIN: Born on October 11, 1773 at Lenox and married Dan P. Cadwell in 1790 at Pittstown; he was an officer in the Revolution. They had five children, Henry D., Mary W. (Polly?), Daniel Peabody, Dolly, and Lorenzo. About 1800 they moved to Holland Patent, Oneida County, New York, where Mr. Cadwell died in 1811. In 1814 Rhoda married Nathan Townsend and had one more son, Nathan Haskin. She died from a fall on October 9, 1851 and is buried in the Daniel P. Cadwell lot of the Holland Patent Cemetery. Mr. Townsend, who also died in 1851, was a son of Martin Townsend and Rhoda Ingham of Bolton, Connecticut and Hancock, Massachusetts, and a descendant of an earlier Martin Townsend who came from Hinton-in-the-Hedges, England in 1665 and settled at Watertown, Massachusetts.

Electa died there of cancer on December 19, 1866. Alexander was born on December 20, 1787 and died on August 30, 1870 at Stittville; both are buried there in Townsend Cemetery.

392. CHARLES HASKIN: Born in 1797 at Pittstown, where he married Harriet Halsted in 1819. They had five sons, Charles R., Orlando Enoch, Dewitt Clinton, Ambrose A., and Royal Augustus. Harriet died of tuberculosis in 1834. In 1837 Mr. Haskin moved with his children and parents to Dayton, Ohio, where he died in 1844 of apoplexy, induced by a fall. He led an unusually active business life, as a hotel keeper at Pittstown and as a farmer and miller in Ohio.

393. PATTY HASKIN: Born in 1799 at Pittstown, where she married William Halsted in 1819 and had two sons, Melvin A. and Edson A. William died in 1835. In 1837 she moved to Dayton, Ohio. In 1847 she moved with her son Melvin and his family to Lake County, Indiana, where she died of liver complaint in 1850.

394. LYDIA ANN HASKIN: Born in 1808 at Pittstown, where she married Andrew Cole in 1828. They settled at White Creek, Washington County, New York but moved to Castile, Wyoming County, New York in 1836, to Marysville, California in 1860, to South Bend, Indiana in 1865, and to Albion, New York in 1878. They had seven children, Charles E., Harriet E., Samuel, Eveline, Edward Clay, George Jermain, and Andrew Haskin. Mr. Cole was born about 1805 and died in 1881 at Albion; he was an unusually upright merchant throughout his life. Lydia Ann supplied much of the information recorded by Dewitt Clinton Haskin. One of the stories she told to her grandchildren was about her ride on an elephant, advertised as the first brought to America, after the animal had been sheltered in her father's barn in 1813. She died in 1901 at Passaic, New Jersey.

841. ORLANDO ENOCH HASKIN: Born in 1822 at Pittstown and lived in California from 1852 to 1855. In 1856 he lost his sight from inflammation in his eyes. In 1857 he married Larranie C. Evans at Lowell, Lake County, Indiana, where he died of consumption in 1869. They had two sons, Charles A. and Orlando E. Larranie later married O. O. Anderson and the family moved to Montana.

842. DEWITT CLINTON HASKIN: Born in 1824 at Pittstown and moved to Dayton with his father in 1837. In 1850 he went to Marysville, California and in 1868 to Vallejo, California. During this period he built the California Pacific Railroad, which ran between Marysville and Vallejo and later became a part of the Southern Pacific. On a trip to New York, New York he spent nearly all of a winter night on a ferry boat which was caught in the ice between Jersey City, New Jersey and New York. This gave him the idea of a tunnel under the Hudson River and he soon incorporated the Hudson Tunnel Railroad Company, with himself as president. In 1874 work was begun on the tunnel, which was the first major project to use compressed air in keeping mud and water out of tunnels, although the idea had previously been used on a smaller scale in England. He completed eighteen hundred feet of tunnel from the New Jersey side of the river before lack of funds stopped the work in 1882. In 1890 the company was reorganized and another section of eighteen hundred feet was completed before the second company went bankrupt. Articles on the tunnel appeared in the Scientific American for March 26, 1904, in the Railroad Age Gazette for September 17, 1909, and in the Proceedings of the Richmond Railroad Club. At the ceremonies marking the completion of the tunnel Mr. Haskin was given much credit by William Gibbs McAdoo, who finished the job. After his retirement from active life Dewitt compiled the original edition of this history of the Haskin family and published it in 1890. He died in 1900 at Buffalo, New York as the result of a stroke suffered two years previously while on a visit to Winona, Minnesota; he is buried in Forest Hills Cemetery, Fredonia, New York.

On September 25, 1861 he enlisted in the United States Army and was discharged on October 26, 1862 at Helena, Arkansas by reason of General Order No. 126. At this time he was Battalion Commissary Sergeant of the Quartermaster's Department, Ninth Illinois Cavalry Volunteers. His army discharge states that he was five feet eight inches tall, had dark eyes, dark complexion, and dark hair, and had been a tinsmith in civilian life. They had four children, Dewitt Clinton, Harriet, Evelyn, and Hiram. In 1869 they moved to Vallejo, California and later to St. Helena, California, where he died of dropsy in 1881, partly as a result of fever and exposure suffered during the war. Maria was born about 1843 in Canada West; after Royal's death she married ---- Bickford and lived at Wheatfield, Indiana.
